Your excellences, the UAE Minister of Energy and Infrastructure, H.E. Mr. Suhail Mohammed Faraj Al Mazroui,

Your Excellency Mrs. Mariam Aweis Jama, Minister of Ports and Marine Transport, Somalia

Your Excellency, The representative of the International Maritime Organization IMO....

Dear attendees

Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is my great pleasure today to take part with you on the occasion of launching the website of DCoC and Jeddah Amendments 2017 that reflects the exerted efforts of the International Maritime Organization IMO and the member states to achieve all our desired objectives.

These objectives shall be fulfilled through the provision and delivery of data and information for the member states and other parties to contribute meeting the challenges of maritime security and combating transnational organized crimes, piracy, and armed robbery against ships.

We all aspire to move forward to achieve the common interest for the member states.

In conclusion, I would like to extend my thanks and gratitude for all of you, wishing you all success.
